ENERGY WAVE COMBINES EASTERN KNOWLEDGE, WITH WESTERN TECHNOLOGY

Energy Wave Worldwide Pte Ltd (the "Company")

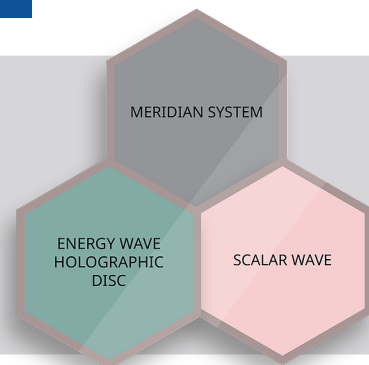

Our revolution started in 2017 when we brought together the eastern knowledge of acupuncture and western knowledge of electromagnetism. We have now created a line of innovative and unique products that we can bring to people of all backgrounds.

OUR TECHNOLOGY

OVERVIEW

Energy Wave technology is a combination of the meridian system, a concept in traditional Chinese medicine (TCM), and scalar technology, longitudinal waves that are responsible for DNA and cell-to-cell communication.

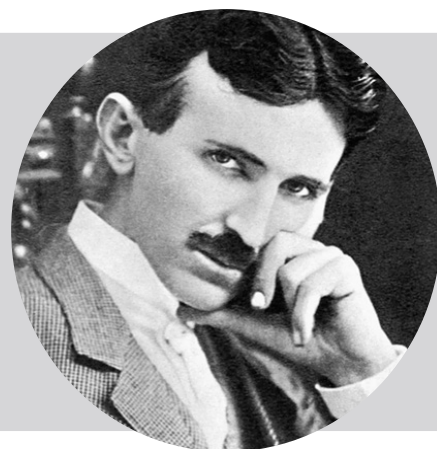

THE MERIDIAN SYSTEM

Technique which taps on our understanding of the human meridian system, is still widely practiced today. The ancient Chinese believed that energy, or Qi, flows through meridian points that can be mapped out all over the body, each serving a different purpose.

SCALAR WAVE TECHNOLOGY

Scalar waves are longitudinal three-dimensional waves, that carry a form of energy that Nikola Tesla called “radiant energy”. This energy has the ability to penetrate every substance including Faraday Cages. It also has the ability to extract data such as the frequencies of substances that can then be modulated and imprinted onto holographic disc.

HOLOGRAPHIC DISC

Our holographic discs are charged with data formulated by Energy Wave biosignal physicians via scalar waves to be placed on specific meridian points of the body. When a holographic disc is placed on a certain acupoint, unique electric field signatures that are embedded in the data disc are transmitted through scalar waves to help regulate the body’s energy flow. When our body’s energy flow is restored, the body naturally realigns itself to improve health and well-being.
